

Following up after the fair

- Write a thank you note to each representative you spoke with. Include another resume and, if requested, any additional information.
- Continue to research the companies or organizations that you met at the fair.
- Complete and return the student career fair survey. Your comments are useful in planning future fairs.
- Use a variety of job search strategies in addition to career fairs to round out your job search.
- Work with your Career Services Office and/or Student Life Career Counseling and Support Services. Follow the procedures established by them to participate in on-campus interviewing
