

ON THE ROAD

to an Internship or Co-op Experience

Internships: Employers in all industries

Co-ops: Motor vehicle manufacturing, chemical manufacturing, engineering services

HIRING NOW

1. Ability to work as part of a team
2. Ability to obtain and process information
3. Organizational and planning skills
4. Verbal communication skills
5. Decision-making/problem-solving skills

RECRUITERS AHEAD

Top three places recruiters will look for you:

1. Career fairs
2. On-campus recruiting
3. On-campus information sessions

TOP SKILLS WANTED

COMPENSATION

Interns: $17.20-per-hour average wage
Highest paid majors: engineering ($20.04), computer science ($18.79)

Co-ops: $17.36-per-hour average wage
Highest paid majors: oil & gas extraction ($22.77), chemical manufacturing industries ($19.10)

TOP BENEFITS

Planned social activities
Paid holidays

TASKS TO PERFORM

Analytical and problem solving tasks
Project management
Communications
Logistics

JOB OPPORTUNITIES AHEAD

58.9% interns offered full-time positions
50.4% co-ops offered full-time positions

SATISFACTION ON THE JOB

Interns
After 1 year: 82.9% remained with employer
After 5 years: 53% remained with employer
Co-op students
After 1 year: 91% remained with employer
After 5 years: 46% remained with employer

Source:

NACE 2015 Internship and Co-op Survey