Buckeye OnPACE is part of Buckeye Careers in the Office of Student Life. OnPACE is a series of self-guided career development modules that can help you learn more about yourself, choose majors or careers, apply to grad school, and prepare to enter the workforce.

For more student resources:

careers.osu.edu/students
Follow these steps to access Buckeye OnPACE:

1. Go to careers.osu.edu/students
2. Click on the Buckeye OnPACE logo
3. Click the Login button
4. Log in using your name.# and university password
5. Click on modules at the top of your screen

You now have access to: Explore self-guided career development modules on such topics as choosing a major, applying to graduate school or entering the workforce. It’s your job to keep the pace!

Contact careerquestions@osu.edu for help.